Credit for Stolen Base.
The Sporting Editor has received the following query:
"When a man on first starts to steal second and the catcher throws wild of the bag, is the runner credited with a stolen base?"

The runner is given a stolen base. The catcher is not given an error except the runner be advanced an extra base by the wild throw.—Ed.

VARSITY DEFEATS FRESHMAN BOAT Crimson Regulars Draw Away From Lower Classmen at Finish—Yale Crews Have Only Light Work—Gore Replaced by Titus Pro Tem.

Red Top, Conn., June 12.—The Harvard varsity eight defeated the freshman eight in a two mile race on the Thames tonight. No time was given out. The freshmen held the lead until the last half mile, when the varsity boat forged ahead. Upon invitation of the Harvard management, the Yale oarsmen followed the crews in launches. Meyer of the varsity four, who has been away for several days because of a slight illness, expected back tomorrow.

Blue Oarsmen Have Guests.
New London, Conn., June 12.—Training quarters of the Yale crews were a lively aspect today. Numerous automobile parties of undergraduates remained to follow the Harvard shells up the course. It was expected that the Crimson would make a time row, but such was not the case. Gore was out of the boat today, suffering from a sore finger, and his place was taken by R. Titus. He will be back again tomorrow.

STODDARD TO PLAY

Stoddard, who was injured in the first game because of his broken finger and Larry Waterbury, his brother who played No. 1, will be shifted to No. 2. Stoddard will play at No. 1. There will be no other changes. The lineup announced this afternoon by the association is: No. 1, Stoddard; No. 2, Larry Waterbury; No. 3, Harry Payne Whitney; back, Leveaux Milburn.

FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL
A BULL MARKET.
Proposed Issue of Emergency Currency a Favorable Influence.
New York, June 12.—After a long and gloomy period of falling prices, Wall street today experienced a marked recovery. Unfavorable factors which weighed heavily over the market a few days ago, while not forgotten, seemed to have been temporarily lost sight of and from the time the market opened until the day was done, the forward movement went on uninterrupted. Canadian Pacific bounded up seven points, Union Pacific six, Southern Railway five, and Reading four and most other active stocks 3 or more. Trading was active, and many big orders were being filled. Various developments of the day helped to send up the market. Undoubtedly the most important was the belief of many traders that the recent downward movement had been exaggerated, that fears had been exaggerated, that pessimism had run out of bounds. Technical conditions called for a reaction, the force of which was increased by a concurrent reaction in sentiment. Conditions were thus ripe for a ready response to the new bullish influences of the day.

Perhaps the most influential of these influences was Secretary McAdoo's announcement that he would sanction issuance of emergency currency. It was not generally believed that banks would immediately avail themselves of this measure of relief, but the prospect of continued tightness in the money, with the possibilities of a serious squeeze in the fall, had been causing no little anxiety and this in turn had been the cause of a substantial part of the panic of the last year. While few time loans were placed, that market continuing to be merely nominal, heavy purchases of mercantile paper were made by large banks. One institution took up $7,000,000 of prime mercantile paper at six per cent. This was accepted as an indication of increased confidence on the part of large financial interests in the outlook.

Union Pacific plan to trade its Southern Pacific stock for Pennsylvania's holdings of Baltimore and Ohio apparently opened a way for disposing of a substantial part of Union Pacific's $126,000,000 of Southern Pacific and was a large factor in the strength of the Hartford stocks. Total sales (par value) $2,900,000. United States bonds were unchanged on call.
